It will take more than magic to finalize the PLWP website. We want your input:

In the first section, please provide brief answers to the questions.

In the next section, please give your comments or ask any questions you have about the information presented concerning the PLWP Web redesign process or the website redesign itself.

1. Have you ever visited the PLWP website? □ Yes □ No
   (If “No” skip down to item 5)

2. If you have visited the PLWP website, what are some reason(s) that took you there?

3. How often would you say you go to/use the website?

4. If you have visited the PLWP website, what is one thing you liked or disliked about it?

5. What might prompt you to go to/use the PLWP website? In other words, what kinds of information or features would likely prompt you to go there or to use it?

A comment I have about the PLWP website redesign process is…

A question I have about the PLWP website redesign process is…
A comment I have about the newly revised PLWP website overall is…

A question I have about the newly revised PLWP website overall is…

A comment I have about the new PLWP Homepage is…

A question I have about the new PLWP Homepage is…

A comment or question I have about the Teachers page is…

A comment or question I have about the TCs page is…

A comment or question I have about the Administrators page is…

A comment or question I have about the Youth page is…

If I were new to PLWP and visited this site, one question I would want an answer to in the FAQs section would be…

What type of Calendar of Events would be most useful for you to have access to on the PLWP website?

What remaining comments or questions do you still have for the Web redesign team?