

Special Thanks to 2001 Contributors to The Voice

In this, the final issue of The Voice for 2001, our staff wishes to thank the writer-contributors whose articles have been part of this year's publication line-up. Without the work of the writers listed below and the contributions of those who help in other ways—supplying photos and other art, verifying details, passing on good leads—editing The Voice would not be the pleasurable task that it is, nor would our publication be nearly as informative.
